

Personnel Safety & Health Statement

Queensway Navigation Co. Ltd in order to prevent accidents and work-related illness among its employees, it places the utmost importance on safe and healthy working conditions. Safety and the protection of health have the highest priority in the company.

The basic safety policy of Queensway Navigation Co. Ltd is that no task is so important that an employee must violate a safety rule or put himself or herself at risk of injury or illness in order to get it done.

Queensway Navigation Co. Ltd has established procedures to protect its employees against exposure to dust, noise, cold, heat, chemicals and other dangerous materials and clear instructions have been issued for the use of personal protection equipment on board vessels.

It is required that Safety Meetings are held monthly, during visits by appropriate company representatives, and in connection with extraordinary circumstances involving accidents, incidents, extreme temperatures and extreme working conditions.

The company maintains a healthy catering policy and supplies its vessels with quality equipment.

If an employee becomes sick or injured on board, the Radio Medical system is to be immediately contacted for advice. If the vessel is in or close to a port, local medical assistance will be requested.

